DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 6, 8-9, 16-18 and 20, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Thomas, US. Pat. No. 5,974,557.

3. Claims 1, 6, 17 and 20 Thomas teaches a process for regulating voltage applied by a voltage regulator to an integrated circuit [title, abstract], comprising the steps of:

measuring instantaneous power consumption inside of the integrated circuit [measuring the temperature inside the microprocessor 2 of Fig. 1, which is proportional to the power consumption, also see activity detector 12 of Fig. 5]; and regulating said voltage according to the measured instantaneous power [regulating the voltage supplied to the VCO 8 of Fig. 1 by using a controller like VCO controller 16 of Fig. 3].

4. Claim 8, Thomas teaches said sensor detects state change in signals output by said unit [col. 5, lines 54-61].

5. Claims 9 and 16, Thomas teaches a voltage regulator being connected to said circuit and receiving the power consumption computed by power calculation unit [regulating the voltage supplied to the VCO 8 of Fig. 1 by using a controller like VCO controller 16 of Fig. 3].

6. Claim 18, Thomas teaches the instantaneous power sensed inside the integrated circuit is sensed by a plurality of sensors inside the integrated circuit and a power calculation unit coupled to the plurality of sensors [Figs. 5 and 7].

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 2-5, 7, 10-15, 19 and 21 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
